

MUSICAL REFLECTIONS MUSICAL REFLECTIONS MUSICAL REFLECTIONS

3 concerts celebrating Whistler's centenary

James McNeill Whistler: Little Venice (1880), Etching

© Hunterian Art Gallery, University of Glasgow

Saturdays 6, 20, 27 September at 8pm
Concert Hall, University of Glasgow

Music for piano, strings and voice by Debussy, Ravel, Liszt, Fauré, Chausson, Sarasate and others

Gusztáv Fenyő
The Edinburgh Quartet
Sandra Porter & Graeme McNaught

Final concert preceded by a special late viewing of the Whistler shows at the Hunterian Art Gallery in honour of Whistler's mother's birthday

Presented by Music-Makers and the Department of Music with support from Glasgow City Council

Tickets: £12 per concert or £30 for all three Concessions: £10/£25, Students £5 per concert
0141 353 8000 Monday to Saturday 10am-6pm Glasgow Royal Concert Hall, 2 Sauchiehall Street Glasgow G2 3NY

3 concerts highlighting connections between Whistler's art and music

Concert Hall, University of Glasgow

Saturday 6 September: 8pm

The Edinburgh Quartet and Gusztáv Fenyő

Charles Mutter, Philip Burrin, Michael Beeston, Mark Bailey

...a thoroughly gripping performance, poetic and energetic, noble and passionate.

The Herald

Debussy's String Quartet, nocturnes for solo piano by Fauré, Debussy and Liszt, 3 pieces for violin & piano by Sarasate, and Ravel's Piano Trio.

Saturday 20 September: 8pm

Gusztáv Fenyő, piano

...the kind of musical charisma that seems to sharpen the listener's powers of concentration.

The Herald

Debussy's Estampes and Images, Ravel's Jeux d'eau, Bartók's Night's Music, Liszt's Venezia á Napoli and other works.

Saturday 27 September: 8pm

Sandra Porter, mezzo-soprano

Graeme McNaught, piano

...her exquisite singing should tempt any waiverer to the theatre.

...this pair work as a genuine partnership.

The Scotsman

Songs by Chausson, Fauré, Debussy and Duparc, including settings of poems by Baudelaire.

All ticket-holders are invited to enjoy a free glass of wine and special late-viewing of the Whistler shows at the Hunterian Art Gallery on 27 September from 6.30pm to 7.45pm, to mark the date of Whistler's mother's 199th birthday.

MUSICAL REFLECTIONS
MUSICAL REFLECTIONS