

Two concerts in The Cathedral of the Isles
Millport
Isle of Cumbrae

Friday 6th September 2013 at 8pm

Peter Lissauer (violin) & Gusztáv Fenyő (piano)

This distinguished pair of Scottish-based Hungarian artists launch the first 'Isle of Cumbrae Summer Music', a residential retreat for classical musicians, with some of the greatest works for violin and piano, from Beethoven's and Debussy's final explorations of the medium to the folk-inspired music of Bartók and Brahms with its strains of Hungarian gypsy music.

Beethoven Sonata in G, Op. 96, Bartók Rhapsody No. 1

Debussy Sonata, Brahms Sonata in D minor, Op. 108

Tickets £10 at the door (including a complimentary glass of wine).

There will be a late ferry back to Largs. The bus leaves Millport at 10.10pm.

Sunday 8th September 2013 at 3pm

A mixed programme of music for piano and strings showcasing students attending the first 'Isle of Cumbrae Summer Music' retreat, including works by J S Bach, Brahms, Schumann, Janáček.
