

2 Exciting Recitals

Susanne Stanzeleit violin

the brilliant young German violinist in a recital with

Gusztáv Fenyő piano

FRIDAY 2nd NOVEMBER 7.30pm

Royal Scottish Academy of Music and Drama

Balázs Szokolay piano

4th Prizewinner, 1990 Leeds International Piano Competition in a two-piano recital with

Gusztáv Fenyő piano

FRIDAY 16th NOVEMBER 7.30pm

TICKETS: £6 (concession £4) per concert from RSAMD
Box Office: Tel: 041-332 5057
and all Ticketlink outlets.

Full details on reverse

FRIDAY 2nd NOVEMBER 7.30pm

SUSANNE STANZELEIT (violin)
GUSZTÁV FENYŐ (piano)

Beethoven: Sonata in F Op. 24 "Spring".
Bartok: Sonata No. 2.
Mozart: Sonata in A K526.
Strauss: Sonata in E flat Op. 18.

SUSANNE STANZELEIT

from West Germany, had already performed Mozart and Mendelssohn concertos by the age of 13. She studied with Leonid Kogan at the Folkwang Hochschule in Essen, graduating in 1989, and has played in masterclasses with Nathan Milstein and Sandor Vegh. Susanne Stanzeleit has given recitals throughout Germany and won prizes in several international competitions.

FRIDAY 16th NOVEMBER 7.30pm

BALÁZS SZOKOLAY (piano)
GUSZTÁV FENYŐ (piano)

Mozart: Sonata in D K448.
Brahms: Variations on a Theme of Haydn Op. 56b.
Bartok: Seven Pieces from "Mikrokosmos".
Rachmaninov: Suite No. 2.

BALÁZS SZOKOLAY

has just won Fourth Prize in the 1990 Leeds International Piano Competition. Earlier this year he was awarded Second Prize in the Scottish International Piano Competition in Glasgow. As one of Hungary's leading young pianists, he has played in nearly twenty European countries and made radio and TV appearances in Germany, Italy and Holland.

